September 2010

Well, school is in session again and extra curricular activities are in full swing. But so are church events. Wings started and we have a full schedule of Sunday events on the calendar. What's the big deal you say? The big deal is you need to make sure you don't trade church in for other things. Sports, work, school...all important. I really believe extra curricular activities are very important in your life. But when it becomes the focus of your life and you start to miss church and youth events you need to step back and think about what is most important. You know me, I think everything we do here at church is more important than anything else you could be doing. But that's just me. I know how busy you kids can get and the pressures you are put under. Just don't cut God out of the equation when your schedule gets full.

Most of you do a great job of keeping a good balance. Just remember, when it gets too much, don't be so quick to drop God out of your schedule. Keep a balance.

But if serving the LORD seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your forefathers served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD." Joshua 24:15

Did Wings Begin Without You??

No problem, just pop in on any Wednesday and see what we're up to. The evening officially begins at 6:30 p.m. but we have plenty of teens that come right after school to hang out, take a nap, or just see what's going on.

Dinner is served from 5:30 p.m. to 6:16 p.m. if you are eating. Cost is $5.00 per meal and must be paid in advance unless it's your first night or you bring a visitor.

Hope to see you soon!!
